

Guaranteed roofing—best responsibility!

Why accept a doubtful guarantee on roofing when you can get one signed by the largest manufacturer of roofing and building papers in the world, with a saving in cost in the long run?

Buy materials that last

Certain-teed Roofing

is guaranteed in writing 5 years for 1-ply, 10 years for 2-ply, and 15 years for 3-ply, and the responsibility of our big mills stands behind this guarantee. Its quality is the highest and its price the most reasonable.

General Roofing Mfg. Company
World's largest manufacturers of Roofing and Building Papers

New York City Boston Chicago Pittsburgh
Philadelphia Atlanta Cleveland Detroit
St. Louis Cincinnati Kansas City Minneapolis
San Francisco Seattle London Hamburg Sydney

Concord

Mrs. W. T. Reed Breaks Off Needle In Her Knee—New School Club Organized.

Mrs. L. M. Cutting, Correspondent.
Mrs. W. T. Reed had the misfortune to break a needle off in her knee last Wednesday afternoon, the needle passing into the flesh in such a manner it was impossible to tell whether eye or point entered first. Dr. French removed the eye and Mrs. Reed was taken to Brightlook hospital for examination by X-ray, but the point of the needle was not located. It was later found on the floor under the rug on which Mrs. Reed was working.

There will be a Valentine party at the M. E. vestry, Saturday evening, Feb. 13. An entertainment consisting of games, readings, musical numbers will be given. Refreshments will be served. A cordial invitation is extended.

The Wide Awake Club has been organized at the Judevine Memorial school with the following officers: President, Marion Burbank; first vice-president, Alice G. Reed; second vice-president, Blaine Coe; secretary, Florence Hodgdon; treasurer, Sadie Green, trustees, B. B. Burbank, Mrs. F. M. Cobleigh, Mrs. E. A. Gray.

Attention is again called to the entertainment at the Town Hall this (Wednesday) evening by the Otterbein quartette.

Regular meeting of Adah chapter, No. 39, O. E. S. Thursday evening. Members of Woodbury G. A. R. and Woodbury W. R. C. with their families are invited to a dinner in G. A. R. Hall, Friday, Feb. 12.

The annual gentlemen's night at the Universalist church has been set for Wednesday evening, Feb. 24.

At the regular meeting of Concord Grange, No. 408, Friday evening, the following subject will be discussed: "Which is more profitable to farmers in this locality to keep all kinds of stock or make the dairy cow a specialty?" There will also be a program.

About 60 couples attended the masked ball given by Concord Grange, Friday night. Music was furnished by Wilkie's orchestra.

Miss Edith McGinnis has been spending a week in St. Johnsbury. Pliny Hale and Charles Hale of St. Johnsbury were business visitors in town the last of the week.

George Caldwell of St. Johnsbury was in town one day last week on business.

Mrs. Charles McPherson and children of East St. Johnsbury visited Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burlock the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Cutting of Waterford were visitors in town the last of the week.

Mrs. C. F. Cutting was in East Ryegate Wednesday, a guest of her mother, Mrs. C. M. Wallace.

Earl Metcalf of Coventry is a guest of his sister, Mrs. Lafa Smith.

Mrs. Minnie Adams is visiting friends in St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Minnie Seavey was home from her work at St. Johnsbury the last of the week.

Mrs. Walter Houston and son, Paul, returned to their home in Johnson, N. H., Friday.

Fred S. Story has moved his family here from St. Johnsbury into the tenement over D. J. Lunn's store. Mr. Story will work in the stone sheds.

Edgar Harvey and M. A. Parker, who have been seriously ill, are able to be on the street.

Ruby Webster of Lunenburg is visiting at the home of Mrs. Emma Quimby.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben Millmore of Scottsboro, P. Q., are guests at the home of their son, C. A. Millmore.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lewis of Littleton, N. H., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lewis Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Chaplin is visiting relatives in Royalton Corner.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Daniels and sons Gerald and Howard of St. Johnsbury, were over Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Millmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Rich of Buffalo, N. Y., are guests of Mr. Rich's father, W. M. Rich.

Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Richards visited in Lunenburg Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Bonnett, who has been caring for Sumner Pike, has returned to his home in East St. Johnsbury.

Miss Winnie and Olive Jewell and Felix McQueen visited friends in Lunenburg Sunday.

William Vachon of St. Johnsbury is at work in the granite shed.

Mrs. J. W. Gillis and daughter, Clara of Danville, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Chapman the past week.

Louvena Ransom spent Sunday in Whitefield, N. H.

Miss Edith Virtue was home from Goddard from Friday till Monday.

Mrs. E. A. Gray, Mrs. L. T. Holton, Mrs. O. W. Baker, Miss Octavia Smith, Miss Hattie Grant, Mrs. Fred Goodenough, Mrs. Alice Richards, Mrs. E. C. Bazin, Mrs. Harry Williamson, Miss Genevieve Sargeant, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard, Mrs. Jacob Richardson, Jr., Mrs. Willis Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Quimby, Henry Gee, H. E. Currier and Richard Southworth have been in St. Johnsbury during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Williams of Littleton, N. H., spent Sunday at E. P. Sortwell's.

Miss Jessie Blodgett of Lancaster, N. H., has been a guest of her sister, Mrs. William Sortwell.

The 25 cent piece was made famous by the American Liver Tablets, the perfect laxative.

NORTH DANVILLE

Grange Sunday to Be Observed at the Church and Grange to Entertain Pomona.

(Alice P. Massey, Correspondent.)
The coming Sunday will be Grange Sunday, the Rev. Mr. Aldrich will speak to them as a body. It is hoped that every granger or anyone who has been one or expects to be one and those that don't, want to be will be present.

Shepherd Pomona Grange will meet with North Danville Grange Feb. 17. The subject for discussion will be "To How Great an Extent Should a Farmer Experiment in New Methods." There will be a paper on "Care and preservation of food in the home." It is hoped that as many as possible will be in attendance.

Paul Pinkham came home Thursday from St. Johnsbury hospital where he had been the past 10 days for an operation.

Benjamin Clifford, Jr., was confined to the house the last of the week with sickness.

Frank Emmons visited in Walden Sunday.

The Morrill school closed last Friday. Those with full attendance and without a mark were: Mildred, Ruth and Edward Allen, Eva and Eugene Duolos, Mildred and Ruth Allen were without a mark in 22 weeks.

E. M. Massey of St. Johnsbury Center was in the place Sunday.

Mrs. Harriette Bailey, who underwent a serious operation at her home last Friday, is doing as well as can be expected.

Clifford and family of St. Johnsbury visited relatives in the place Sunday.

Ralph Woodward of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday in the place.

Mrs. Lena Tousant was taken to the St. Johnsbury hospital last week sick with pneumonia. She is doing well.

Clara Drew of Woodsville and Vera Drew of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday at their home here.

Sewing Circle meets with Mrs. George Drew Thursday afternoon.

Lyman Morrill spent Sunday at his home from his school at Lyndon.

Ruby Ellsworth spent the week end with her friend, Mrs. Homer Stanton.

The sick ones are gaining slowly.

Mrs. Hector Chamberlain and daughter of Nashua, N. H., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Varnum.

Eugene Paquin of St. Johnsbury visited at Elgin Gale's Sunday.

GREENSBORO
Pomona Grange Meeting Largely Attended and Fine Program—Death of Maurice Spier.

(G. A. Porter, Correspondent.)
There was a large attendance at the meeting of Hazen Road Pomona Grange Saturday at Grange Hall. State Master Cady of Middlebury was present and gave an address to the large gathering.

Maurice Spier passed away Friday morning after a life of suffering, having always been an invalid but bearing his suffering with patience. Deceased was 19 years of age and the funeral services were held at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Spier, Sunday afternoon, Rev. S. T. Achenback attending, assisted by Rev. F. A. Collins.

Mrs. Robert Willey is spending a few days at the home of her son, B. M. Willey.

Mrs. Hettie Goodrich is on the sick list.

Mr. Howard was home from Montpelier over Sunday.

Thomas Morse has purchased the late homestead of George Palmer of Hiram Calderwood.

Personal property brought good prices at the auction sale of Mr. Achenback's household goods Thursday. Mr. Achenback preached Sunday morning and expects to leave town the early part of this week. Mrs. Achenback will stop with friends in town for a few weeks. Miss Ila Cutts went to Barre Thursday.

A large four-horse load of visiting patrons came from Glover and about the usual number from our own jurisdiction. Several new members were given the degree of Pomona and after the business meeting the doors were thrown open so that any one who wished to listen to the program might enter. Music was furnished by Mrs. Charles Richards, Mrs. F. Eastman, Mr. Eastman, Mrs. Haines and Mrs. Wakefield. An interesting paper on Cyrus W. Field by W. H. Miller was given, also a paper by Rev. Mr. Bole on "Should the United States Intervene in the Question of Mexican Government?" and a discussion of the resolution, "That Thorough Bred Stock is More Profitable for the Farmer than the Common Herd," led by Messrs. C. H. Root, G. J. Perkins in the affirmative and Messrs. G. W. Lovejoy and Guy Albion in the negative, followed by several other brothers. The judges decided on the points and time of discussion 40 minutes and 12 points for the affirmative and 36 minutes time and 11 points for the negative. A fine dinner was served in the church dining rooms near by the hall.

W. S. Ingalls dressed ten fat hogs Wednesday and Thursday, took them to Barre market.

PERS
Miss Lottie Plant has been entertaining Miss Mae Martin and Catherine Baker of Montpelier and Anna Bresson and friend from Lyndonville.

Clara Shackway of Littleton was a week-end guest of her parents.

Elmer Fox, who has been confined to his bed is able to be out now.

School closes Friday, Feb. 19.

WATERFORD
Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Harvey of Franconia were recent guests of his brother, C. I. Harvey.

Mrs. Dora Thuer of Littleton was a recent guest of Mrs. Millard Carpenter.

Mrs. R. T. Pike and son Nathan were week-end guests of Mrs. Marshall Richardson in Littleton.

Dan Williams and daughter, Jessie of Concord, were recent guests at W. E. Dodge's.

The Sunday school children will have a Valentine party in the vestry Saturday evening the 13th. Refreshments will be served.

Clara Shackway of Littleton was a week-end guest of her parents.

Elmer Fox, who has been confined to his bed is able to be out now.

School closes Friday, Feb. 19.

WALDEN
(N. J. Kingsbury, Correspondent.)
Wells M. Badger died early Thursday morning at the home of his son, E. J. Badger, and Friday the body was taken to Barre where the funeral was held Saturday.

Mrs. Ward Gillis of Danville has been visiting at G. H. Kingsbury's.

George Badger of Morrisville and A. W. Badger of Barre were at E. J. Badger's Thursday, called there by the death of their father.

The Ladies Mite Society will have a social at Mrs. Hattie Bancroft's on Thursday evening of this week.

Clark Merritt is sick with pneumonia and a trained nurse is caring for him.

Harry Rogers was a business visitor in St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Kingsbury visited friends in Danville last week.

(Mrs. Lucy Weed, Correspondent.)
Mr. and Mrs. John Rock returned from Morrisville Friday and are keeping house in Charles McGovern's house.

Mrs. J. P. Rock and Miss Nellie Cady were in St. Johnsbury last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Berry were called to Sutton last week to see Mrs. J. Berry, who is very low.

Mrs. Mary Hoffman and family visited at Karl Hoffman's last Sunday.

The Willing Workers will present the play "The Noble Outcast" at the church next Tuesday evening. Supper will be served after the play. This is for the benefit of the Old Red Schoolhouse Club House. Let every one turn out and help them.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Goss of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday with his mother and sister.

Miss Mae Bent of Boston is stopping at Fred Blake's.

The teacher and pupils of the Mountain school will give an entertainment at the hall Thursday night, Feb. 18. Dance after. Proceeds to be used to purchase a clock for the school room.

Alice Blake was in Newport last week looking for a farm.

MONROE
(Mabel Frazer, Correspondent.)
Rev. D. E. Burns attended the Methodist Social Union at Lancaster Wednesday.

Misses Mary Fisher and Ethel Duncan are at home from their schools at Sheffield for the spring vacation.

Mrs. Harry Lang of Woodsville visited at Rev. D. E. Burns' last week.

The men of North Monroe church will serve an oyster supper in the vestry, Friday night.

The Epworth League realized $3.50 from the ten-cent social Friday night.

Mrs. D. E. Burns and Mrs. Harry Lang visited Mrs. Samuel McBurney at North Monroe Friday.

Mrs. S. J. Astle was in Concord last week. Mrs. Bradley of St. Johnsbury kept house for her during her absence.

Miss Lillie Placey was at home from Passumpsic over Sunday.

LOWER WATERFORD
(Mrs. G. A. Ballou, Correspondent.)
Ernest Powers spent Sunday with his brother, Eugene Powers, at Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown and daughter, Mrs. Bailey of St. Johnsbury, attended church here Sunday and sang in the choir.

Alma Blodgett is very ill at the home of her brother, Austin Blodgett.

The oyster supper was well attended and all enjoyed a very pleasant time.

The Ladies Social Circle will meet with Mrs. E. W. Brown Wednesday, Feb. 10, afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock. All are invited.

Mrs. Josiah Stoddard, who spent the past two months with relatives in St. Johnsbury, has returned home.

Miss Bertha Wright finished her school in Kirby and came home Sunday.

Sam Phillips attended a masquerade ball at Bethlehem last week.

WATERFORD
Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Harvey of Franconia were recent guests of his brother, C. I. Harvey.

Mrs. Dora Thuer of Littleton was a recent guest of Mrs. Millard Carpenter.

Mrs. R. T. Pike and son Nathan were week-end guests of Mrs. Marshall Richardson in Littleton.

Dan Williams and daughter, Jessie of Concord, were recent guests at W. E. Dodge's.

The Sunday school children will have a Valentine party in the vestry Saturday evening the 13th. Refreshments will be served.

Clara Shackway of Littleton was a week-end guest of her parents.

Elmer Fox, who has been confined to his bed is able to be out now.

School closes Friday, Feb. 19.

WALDEN
(N. J. Kingsbury, Correspondent.)
Wells M. Badger died early Thursday morning at the home of his son, E. J. Badger, and Friday the body was taken to Barre where the funeral was held Saturday.

Mrs. Ward Gillis of Danville has been visiting at G. H. Kingsbury's.

George Badger of Morrisville and A. W. Badger of Barre were at E. J. Badger's Thursday, called there by the death of their father.

The Ladies Mite Society will have a social at Mrs. Hattie Bancroft's on Thursday evening of this week.

Clark Merritt is sick with pneumonia and a trained nurse is caring for him.

Harry Rogers was a business visitor in St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Kingsbury visited friends in Danville last week.

(Mrs. Lucy Weed, Correspondent.)
Mr. and Mrs. John Rock returned from Morrisville Friday and are keeping house in Charles McGovern's house.

Mrs. J. P. Rock and Miss Nellie Cady were in St. Johnsbury last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Berry were called to Sutton last week to see Mrs. J. Berry, who is very low.

Mrs. Mary Hoffman and family visited at Karl Hoffman's last Sunday.

The Willing Workers will present the play "The Noble Outcast" at the church next Tuesday evening. Supper will be served after the play. This is for the benefit of the Old Red Schoolhouse Club House. Let every one turn out and help them.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Goss of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday with his mother and sister.

Miss Mae Bent of Boston is stopping at Fred Blake's.

The teacher and pupils of the Mountain school will give an entertainment at the hall Thursday night, Feb. 18. Dance after. Proceeds to be used to purchase a clock for the school room.

Alice Blake was in Newport last week looking for a farm.

MONROE
(Mabel Frazer, Correspondent.)
Rev. D. E. Burns attended the Methodist Social Union at Lancaster Wednesday.

Misses Mary Fisher and Ethel Duncan are at home from their schools at Sheffield for the spring vacation.

Mrs. Harry Lang of Woodsville visited at Rev. D. E. Burns' last week.

The men of North Monroe church will serve an oyster supper in the vestry, Friday night.

The Epworth League realized $3.50 from the ten-cent social Friday night.

Mrs. D. E. Burns and Mrs. Harry Lang visited Mrs. Samuel McBurney at North Monroe Friday.

Mrs. S. J. Astle was in Concord last week. Mrs. Bradley of St. Johnsbury kept house for her during her absence.

Miss Lillie Placey was at home from Passumpsic over Sunday.

LOWER WATERFORD
(Mrs. G. A. Ballou, Correspondent.)
Ernest Powers spent Sunday with his brother, Eugene Powers, at Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown and daughter, Mrs. Bailey of St. Johnsbury, attended church here Sunday and sang in the choir.

Alma Blodgett is very ill at the home of her brother, Austin Blodgett.

The oyster supper was well attended and all enjoyed a very pleasant time.

The Ladies Social Circle will meet with Mrs. E. W. Brown Wednesday, Feb. 10, afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock. All are invited.

Mrs. Josiah Stoddard, who spent the past two months with relatives in St. Johnsbury, has returned home.

Miss Bertha Wright finished her school in Kirby and came home Sunday.

Sam Phillips attended a masquerade ball at Bethlehem last week.

WATERFORD
Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Harvey of Franconia were recent guests of his brother, C. I. Harvey.

Mrs. Dora Thuer of Littleton was a recent guest of Mrs. Millard Carpenter.

Mrs. R. T. Pike and son Nathan were week-end guests of Mrs. Marshall Richardson in Littleton.

Dan Williams and daughter, Jessie of Concord, were recent guests at W. E. Dodge's.

The Sunday school children will have a Valentine party in the vestry Saturday evening the 13th. Refreshments will be served.

Clara Shackway of Littleton was a week-end guest of her parents.

Elmer Fox, who has been confined to his bed is able to be out now.

School closes Friday, Feb. 19.

WALDEN
(N. J. Kingsbury, Correspondent.)
Wells M. Badger died early Thursday morning at the home of his son, E. J. Badger, and Friday the body was taken to Barre where the funeral was held Saturday.

Mrs. Ward Gillis of Danville has been visiting at G. H. Kingsbury's.

George Badger of Morrisville and A. W. Badger of Barre were at E. J. Badger's Thursday, called there by the death of their father.

The Ladies Mite Society will have a social at Mrs. Hattie Bancroft's on Thursday evening of this week.

Clark Merritt is sick with pneumonia and a trained nurse is caring for him.

Harry Rogers was a business visitor in St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Kingsbury visited friends in Danville last week.

(Mrs. Lucy Weed, Correspondent.)
Mr. and Mrs. John Rock returned from Morrisville Friday and are keeping house in Charles McGovern's house.

Mrs. J. P. Rock and Miss Nellie Cady were in St. Johnsbury last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Berry were called to Sutton last week to see Mrs. J. Berry, who is very low.

Mrs. Mary Hoffman and family visited at Karl Hoffman's last Sunday.

The Willing Workers will present the play "The Noble Outcast" at the church next Tuesday evening. Supper will be served after the play. This is for the benefit of the Old Red Schoolhouse Club House. Let every one turn out and help them.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Goss of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday with his mother and sister.

Miss Mae Bent of Boston is stopping at Fred Blake's.

The teacher and pupils of the Mountain school will give an entertainment at the hall Thursday night, Feb. 18. Dance after. Proceeds to be used to purchase a clock for the school room.

Alice Blake was in Newport last week looking for a farm.

MONROE
(Mabel Frazer, Correspondent.)
Rev. D. E. Burns attended the Methodist Social Union at Lancaster Wednesday.

Misses Mary Fisher and Ethel Duncan are at home from their schools at Sheffield for the spring vacation.

Mrs. Harry Lang of Woodsville visited at Rev. D. E. Burns' last week.

The men of North Monroe church will serve an oyster supper in the vestry, Friday night.

The Epworth League realized $3.50 from the ten-cent social Friday night.

Mrs. D. E. Burns and Mrs. Harry Lang visited Mrs. Samuel McBurney at North Monroe Friday.

Mrs. S. J. Astle was in Concord last week. Mrs. Bradley of St. Johnsbury kept house for her during her absence.

Miss Lill